DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1, 2 and 4-14, drawn to a compound 8 to 50 nucleobases in length targeted to a nucleic acid encoding HKR1 wherein the compound comprises at least an 8 nucleobase portion of SEQ ID NO: 56, classified in class 536, subclass 24.5.
  - II. Claim 15, drawn to a method of inhibiting the expression of HKR1 in cells or tissues comprising contacting with a compound 8 to 50 nucleobases in length targeted to a nucleic acid encoding HKR1 wherein the compound comprises at least an 8 nucleobase portion of SEQ ID NO: 56, classified in class 514, subclass 44.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). Invention I is drawn to an antisense compound 8 to 50 nucleobases in length which specifically hybridizes with specified nucleobases of a nucleic acid molecule encoding HKR1. Invention II is drawn to a method of inhibiting the expression of HKR1 in cells or tissues using the antisense compound of claim 1. In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product, such as a hybridization assay to elucidate or quantify cell or tissue specific gene expression.

Furthermore, searching Inventions I and II together would impose a serious search burden. In the instant case, prior art searches of the claimed composition and the claimed method are not coextensive. Search of each of these inventions would require different key word searches in divergent patent and non-patent literature databases and would require, at least, a search for particular steps required by the method that would not be required by a search for the composition. Each search would then require subsequent in-depth analysis of all relevant prior art literature, placing an undue and serious burden on the Office in terms of both search and examination. As such, it would be burdensome to perform search and examination of any of Inventions I and II together.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and would require divergent searches of sequence and literature databases placing an undue administrative burden on the examiner, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996).

Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jon B. Ashen whose telephone number is 571-272-2913. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:30 am - 4:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's acting supervisor, Andrew Wang can be reached on 571-272-0811. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
